In the neat barber shop on Main-street, friend Joe, Hencath the old green house so fine, He has fitted up his shelve: with soaps of every scent, And the striped pole is his sign.

Upon his soft cushioned chair, old Joe, That spreads wide its arms for us all.
Together we've sat in the noon-day time,
And snoozed while he shaved us so well. Many Barbers have tried in vain, old Joe,

But their efforts can never compare; For the customers flock around the shop to see How tastefully he clips off the hair. There's a change in the times I know, friend Joe,
They have chang'd from the old to the new.
And I feel in the depths of my pocket the truth
That prices down town of have chang'd too.

FOREST WINE & FOREST PILLS. The Fosest Pills .- There are three things The Fosest Pills.—There are three things peculiar to these Pills alone—
1st. They neither gripe nor weaken the system. This is because they contain no Drugs or Minerals, but that they are the pure virtues of Plants which are as wholesome as the food we cat.
2d. They purge most when the stomach and bowels are most billious and foul, afterthis their efficacy enters the blood, and the process of spurifying goes on until all humor and disease are expelled from the system til all humor and disease are expelled from the system of the
